

Southern Labor Studies Association

Studying, Teaching, and Preserving the History of Southern Labor

The Southern Labor Studies Association promotes the study of and research in the field of southern labor and working-class studies, facilitates active programs of scholarly exchange among scholars, teachers, archivists and activists, and works to build and strengthen a sense of community among scholars of labor and the working-class residing in the U.S. South.

Become a member online at www.southernlaborstudies.org, or by completing this form and mailing with a check to:

Evan Bennett, Treasurer
Department of History, Florida Atlantic University
777 Glades Road
Boca Raton, FL 33431

Annual dues are $25 ($10 for students and the unemployed).

Name: _____

Mailing Address: _____

Email Address: _____

Phone: _____

Institutional Affiliation: _____

Department: _____

Position:

- Faculty/Researcher
- Primary/Secondary School Teacher
- Graduate/Undergraduate Student
- Archivist/Curator
- Union Member
- Independent Scholar
- Other _____

I am interested in helping with:

- Events
- Outreach
- Communications
- Syllabus Exchange
- Zieger Prize Fundraising